

Emilio Sacchetti

Emilio Sacchetti graduated with honors in psychiatry from the Milan University School of Medicine.

Professor Sacchetti, is presently Chairman of Psychiatry at the Brescia University School of Medicine, Director of the University Psychiatric Unit N° 22 and the Department of Mental Health at Brescia University & Spedali Civili, Director of the Postgraduate School of Psychiatry at the Brescia University School of Medicine.

His research activities have extended across many areas of clinical psychiatry, neurocognition, psychiatric rehabilitation, human psychopharmacology and biological psychiatry, with a privileged focus on genetic and brain imaging correlates of schizophrenia and mood disorders.

Professor Sacchetti has published more than 300 articles in peer-reviewed national and international scientific journals and books.

He is also the Editor of 8 books.

Currently, Professor Sacchetti is President of Italian Psychiatric Society, Vice-President of the Italian section of International Society for Bipolar Disorders, and member of the Board of Directors of several scientific societies.