

Enrico Zanalda

Enrico Zanalda, was born May 2nd 1957, owns a Degree in Medicine (year 1982) and a University Specialization in Psychiatry (year 1986). He is currently Director of the Functional Department of Mental Health, A.S.L. TO3; Temporary Professor in Forensic Psychiatry at the University Specialization in Psychiatry, Turin; Temporary Professor of Psychiatric Rehabilitation (“San Luigi Gonzaga” University Hospital); Secretary (elected 2012/15) of the Italian Psychiatry Association; Senior Consultant for the monitoring and management of the Regional Psychiatric Services.

His past professional experience is as follows: Director of the S.C. of Venaria Reale (2000-2004); Senior Psychiatrist at the Operative Unit of Psychiatry, A.S.O. “San Giovanni Battista”, Turin (1990-2000). He was president of the Italian Psychiatric Association-Piedmont and Valle d’Aosta regional section (elected 2009-2012), and member of the Italian Society of Criminology (2004-2010); the Society of Psychopathology (1997-2010); founding member and secretary of the Italian Academy of Psychiatry, Psychology and Law (1997-2004).

More than 100 national and international publications.